Pricing conditions for daycare

As soon as the parents have confirmed the registration, the registration fee of CHF 150.00 must be paid for each new child.

The fee for the full day is CHF 140.00 and for the half day, it is CHF 100.00.

The fee covers the care of the child during its time in the day care and includes all the services provided during the day (including meals, hygiene care (nappy change cream, baby cream, sunscreen cream) and the diapers).

Siblings discount

For two children enrolled: There is a reduction of 10% (on the lowest fee), provided that the days are identical.

For three children enrolled: There is a reduction of 15% (on the lowest fee), provided that the days are identical.

Object of the contract

This contract is signed for one year and it is renewable by tacit agreement. It may be revised during the year.

Any request for the revision of the contract must be the subject of a written request to the administrative director of the day care center by giving two months notice, (at the end of a month).

The SmileyWorld daycare reserves the right to revise the amount of the welcome benefit throughout the year. It will take into account the same contractual conditions (two months before the end of a month) to warn the families.

Period of termination / termination of the contract

The contract is terminated upon the departure of the child from the establishment in the case of non-compliance with the operating regulations.

The parents may terminate the contract by giving two months notice, (at the end of a month), by sending a letter of breach of contract, addressed to the management of SmileyWorld.

The period of adaptation

It normally takes over a week for a child to be adapted to a new environment. The amount for this period of adaptation is CHF 200.00.

The parents need to pay before the start of the adaptation period.

Official and supplementary holidays

The daycare is closed during the first two weeks of August and one week during Christmas.

The daycare is also closed on the following holidays: New Year, 2 January, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Ascension Day, Pentecost Monday, 1 August, Federal Fast Monday and on Christmas.
